A Great Mistake.

A rec'nt discovery is that headache, dizziness, duliness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia. wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these or-ment of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system, as will be seen by the accompanying rut. The little white lines a rothe nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric current is conveyed along the telegraph wires to every part of the body, just as the electric current is conveyed along the telegraph wires to every physicians fall to regard this fact; instead of treating the nervecological for the cells of the discolors of the discolors
